She is currently a director on the Wine Tasmania Board.

She is highly respected wine show judge and has chaired many regional and capital city wine shows, having completed both the A WRI's Advanced Wine Assessment Course and the Len Evans Tutorial, where she continues her involvement as a tutor. In 2014 she was appointed Chair of Judges at the Sydney Royal Wine Show, the first female and the youngest judge in that position.

In 2016 she acquired a small vineyard and olive grove in the Coal River Valley north east of Hobart, which she expanded by an additional two hectares in 2017. Under her stewardship, this vineyard was awarded 'Tasmanian Vineyard of the Year' in May 2019.

Comments: There were some very good wines showing that Chardonnay was one of the highlights of the cooler year. The best wines were fruit focused with composed and concentrated fruit flavours driving through the length of the palate. In some wines the hand of the winemaker was too strong, showing that winemaking must be tailored to the vintage. It is also important that ripeness is not excessive otherwise the palate can lose its definition.

VERDELHO - ANY VINTAGE

Judges: Toni Paterson MW, Stuart Hordern, Rob Mack, Richard Done, Will Figueira

Comments: An impressive class with good winemaking on display. Overall, the wines were very well made, with good management of phenolics and faults at a minimum. The cooler temperatures of the past two years seem to suit the variety with freshness on display in the majority of the wines. Overall the wines from 2022 were stronger than 2021. More people seem to be making their mark with this variety which is great to see. Three golds, all worthy though contrasting in style. The top gold stood tall with its composure, flavour and length.

2021 RED BLENDS

Comments: Many wines reflected the season, showing less fruit weight. In some cases the oak influence that was too heavy for the lightness of the fruit weight. Hard tannins poked out in some of the wines. However, the top wine had impressive clarity and translucency, with excellent flavour in a medium-weight frame.

DRY RED WINE 2014 & OLDER

Judges: Toni Paterson MW, Stuart Hordern, Rob Mack, Richard Done, Will Figueira

Comments: This class was a pleasure to judge and caused much debate. Freshness and composure were the elements seen in the best wines. Oak was sometimes an overbearing element, and maintains its presence with age. When the quality of the fruit is so good, heavy handed oak is not required, as it can mask the charm of Hunter Shiraz.
